NOTES Questions for Further Study & Reflection:

- Title: Applied Spirituality Text: Nehemiah 10
1. This chapter is virtually a summary of the major requirements of the Old Covenant God made with Israel under the Law of Moses (see Exodus 20-31). What are the different areas or categories of obedience to which God called his people Israel, according to this chapter?
 2. Nehemiah 10:30 addresses marriage. What commitments by parents regarding giving their children in marriage do you think should Christian parents make today? What might that look like?
 3. Nehemiah 10:31 speaks about their commitment not to engage in commerce on the Sabbath. What kinds of commitments do you think a Christian should make today regarding business practices, schedules and boundaries?
 4. Nehemiah 10:31b speaks about forgoing crops every 7th year and canceling debts. Read Leviticus 25 for the background to this. What steps of faith would this have required? Do you see any New Testament parallels to these practices? What steps of faith does God ask us to take when it comes to letting go of wealth and resources? Why?
 5. Neh. 10:32-39 is all about caring for the Old Testament priests, Levites and the Temple of God through tithes and offerings. What different types of offerings were to be given? How much? How often? Since the temple of God is now the New Testament church (1 Cor. 3:16, 17; 2 Cor. 6:16), what does the Bible call us to do today to care for that current "temple", the church? What part do you see yourself responsible for, called to or gifted in regarding caring for the church today? How is that an expression of your faith in Jesus Christ?
