NOTES God's Living Will
Freedom Series in Galatians

- Questions for Further Study & Discussion:
1. Who are the people you allow to have spiritual authority in your life? Why? How did you choose them? What checks and balances exist in your relationship with them that will keep you from drifting into possible error? (Gal. 1:1-2)
 2. What kind of a relationship between God's people from different locations does the opening of Galatians seem to invite/encourage (1:1-2)?
 3. Hammer out a good working definition for "grace." Do the same for "peace." What does the context of Galatians 1:1-5 teach us about both grace & peace? How have you experienced grace &/or peace in the body of Christ? What are some of the primary enemies of God's grace & peace in the church? What might God want you to do to be a better conduit of God's grace & peace to other followers of Christ?
 4. Gal. 1:6-9—Share your own personal journey/testimony into the grace of Christ with your group, family or friend. What was your understanding of the gospel at that time? What was your understanding of grace at that time and how did it relate to your salvation?
 5. Gal. 1:6-9 talks about changing the true Gospel to "a different gospel" that "distort[s] the gospel of Christ." Come up with the most basic definition of the true gospel that you can. In other words, what must someone embrace in terms of Jesus Christ in order to hold to the true gospel? In what ways do you see the gospel being distorted today by people who claim to know and preach the gospel? How might it be distorted in our own church? What should you do about that?
